WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Thursday, February 13, 1868.

WHAT matters it whether we ratify or reject the Constitutions prepared by these mongrel Conventions? See the fate of Alabama as indicated in our dispatches.

THE correspondence between the President and Gen. Grant, concerning the surrender of the War Department by the latter to Mr. Stanton, grows rich in developments and raciness. The correspondence was begun, by Gen. Grant, on the 28th of January last, by a letter, in which reference is made to the reports in the public press, of the conversation had between them, regarding the course Gen. Grant should pursue, should Mr. Stanton be reinstated by the Senate, which reports Gen. Grant said, purported to come from the President, or Presidential office, and which he characterized as gross misrepresentations affecting his personal honor. The letter contained a request that the President would give, in writing, the order verbally given, requiring him to disregard the orders of Mr. Stanton, until he knew that they were from the President himself. In the letter of the 28th, Gen. Grant denies the accuracy of the version of the conversation on the subject, had between the President and himself in the Cabinet meeting on the 14th of January, in which conversation Gen. Grant is charged by the President, with having promised, in case of the passage of the bill reinstating Mr. Stanton, that he would either suffer legal proceedings to be instituted against him for the possession of the office, or would place the office at the disposal of the President, by tendering his resignation as Secretary of War ad interim.

To this letter an answer was prepared by the President and delivered to Gen. Grant on the 31st of January, in which the President distinctly and emphatically re-affirms the correctness of the report of the conversation given to the public, and states that the five members of the cabinet present during the conversation concur with him in opinion.

The rejoinder of Gen. Grant, dated the 3rd of February, was merely a reiteration of the positions taken in his first letter. He justified his surrender of the War Department under the plea that he was compelled to obey the law, and that by the Tenure of Office bill his functions as Secretary of War ended, with the passage of the act for the reinstatement of Mr. Stanton. The matter stood thus until yesterday.

The question had thus become one of veracity between Mr. Johnson and Gen. Grant. We published on yesterday a full telegraphic synopsis of the letter of the President in reply to that of Gen. Grant, bearing date Feb'y 3rd. Accompanying the President's letters are letters from Secretaries Welles, McCulloch, Seward, Randall and Browning, who were present during the conversation between the President and Gen. Grant. These gentlemen, with the exception of Mr. Seward, who never had a positive opinion in such matters, explicitly vouch for the accuracy of the President's version of the interview. If General Grant has Presidential aspirations, it is indeed most unfortunate that he began this correspondence. His character has suffered, badly suffered, and his military prestige will not suffice to screen him from censure and ridicule. Against his assertions in the controversy are opposed the positive statements of the President and the Secretaries to whom we have alluded. It is evident that Gen. Grant has been led into this difficult position by political tricksters, who seek through him to strike down the President; that he has been an instrument in the hands of bad men for the accomplishment of ignoble purposes. The spectacle presented to the world by this whole matter will bring shame upon the national character.

THE Convention has been engaged for the last two days in discussing various propositions for alterations in the judicial system of the State. The Judiciary Committee submitted, on Monday, three plans for creating Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts, and requested instructions as to the preference of the Convention. The first of these plans provides for the election of said judges by the people; the second, for the election of the same by the Legislature; and the third, for their appointment by the Governor and confirmation by the Senate.—The request gave rise to a warm and protracted debate, developing considerable differences of opinion among the Radical members of the body. Finally, by a vote of 62 to 15, the Convention, by courtesy, adopted a resolution instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to report an ordinance giving the election of all judicial officers to the people.

One by one old things are passing away, and unless the tendency to innovation be arrested, every landmark, dear to North Carolinians, will be swept from existence. Innovation has followed innovation during the last and the present week, until we are threatened with a deluge of New England ideas, laws and customs. Our laws and customs are sneered at by these wandering apostles of new doctrines. We are behind the age, they say, and change has become necessary, that we may keep step with the progress of events. There was not wisdom and knowledge of states-craft among the people of North Carolina to meet the emergency—to answer the demands of the age, and other men coming from—nobody knows where, have generously abandoned their own homes and have undertaken the difficult task of revising and altering our laws, so that they may be put in accord with the spirit of the century. The laws by which we have hitherto been governed are no longer fit for our governance, and in a spirit of genuine charity, pitying our infirmities and sympathizing with our weaknesses, these champions of "moral ideas and progress" have kindly remodelled them—charging therefor, only the moderate sum of eight dollars per day.

The people of North Carolina owe these benefactors a debt of gratitude—which we fear they will never pay. They fail to appreciate the magnitude of the sacrifices that have been made for them, and stubbornly contend, that they are a body of interlopers and adventurers, whose officious intermeddling with their affairs is undertaken with so much impudence and effrontery as to be scarcely less than sublime.

Seriously, when is this war upon our cherished institutions to end? How shall this restless, dissatisfied spirit—peculiarly developed in New England character—be appeased? Change has followed change with a rapidity which defies description, and we shall not be surprised, if they continue until some genius shall win immortality by the introduction of a resolution requesting dame Nature to do that, which in their souls they desire—make their skins, like their hearts, deep black.

Wonderful Performance of the TOURGEE!

HE SNORTS—HE CAVORTS!

He wants to "EXPURGE" the Aristocracy.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

THE TWENTY-SIXTH DAY.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 12, 1868.

The cages were thrown open and the performance commenced at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The North Carolinian of the previous day read and approved.

RESOLUTIONS, ORDINANCES, &C.

Mr. Forkner: A resolution that the Committee on the Judiciary report an article to the Constitution permitting citizens of the State to practice in the courts on proving a good moral character, and paying the fees. Lies over.

[This resolution, if passed, will defeat the very object for which it is designed. It was intended for Tourgee's benefit, as every body knows, but every body knows Tourgee's stock of moral qualities is so small that he can never get the permission to practice.]

Mr. Franklin: A resolution in favor of E. H. Ray, late Sheriff of Wake county. Lies over.

Mr. Bryan, of Kirk's Raider's: A resolution in favor of all the Sheriffs in the State—allowing them further time for the collection of taxes.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, was opposed to the passage of any such measure.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, favored it.

Mr. Tourgee, (judicial aspirant,) moved to amend by allowing them to collect taxes due prior to 1861.

Mr. Welker, of Guilford, favored the amendment offered by his illustrious colleague.

Mr. Moore was opposed to the amendment. Some of the people had paid these old taxes twice, and to let the Sheriffs loose upon them again would be an injustice.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, said that he concurred in Mr. Moore's remarks.

Mr. Tourgee finally withdrew the amendment.

Galloway, nigger, moved to amend by excepting the Sheriff of Brunswick county; and said that he offered the amendment because he thought that the Sheriff did not want relief; that he was an obstructionist, and had kept men by false devices from registering.

[Query? We wonder if some body did not have more than a finger in that pie—a whole Leg-g, in fact?]

Mr. Bryan was glad that Mr. Tourgee's amendment had been withdrawn. Hoped there would be no amendment, as he had offered the resolution to save time.

Mr. Hodnett was opposed to the whole matter. He did not approve of the plan of indulging Sheriffs by allowing them to go on in a careless and negligent manner. Besides this the ignorant people could be imposed upon.

Mr. Hare favored the passage of the ordinance and said that as so much had been said about relief, he hoped the Convention would consider this ordinance favorably. The Sheriffs were the ones who needed relief. They had taken money out of their pockets to pay the deficiencies.

Galloway, (nigger,) here withdrew his amendment, and the question recurring on the original ordinance, it was passed.

Mr. Sweet, of Craven, moved that the report of the Committee on Legislature be made special order for Monday next at 11 o'clock, which motion prevailed.

The hour of eleven arrived, which was the time set apart for considering the report of the Suffrage Committee's report.

Mr. Rich asked that its consideration be postponed, and that it be made the special order for Tuesday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Candler, [the ladies' man from Buncombe, whose,

Soap-locks pomatumed, shed sweeter perfume,
Than is borne from the garden of Gul in her bloom.
Ah! never was hair of a simpering girl
More carefully, painfully tutored to curl;
When the inside is empty, 'tis spoken we know,
Upon the external, much care to bestow,] moved to amend by making it the Special Order for Saturday next.

The question then recurred on the last amendment. Put and lost.

The first amendment was then put and carried.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the committee on the Judiciary, containing the resolution in regard to distinctions between the action in law and equity—testing the sense of the Convention: first, the distinctions between actions at law and suits in equity, and the forms of all such actions and suits shall be abolished, and there should be but one form of civil action. Second; the distinction between law and suits in equity now existing should not be abolished.

Mr. Tourgee was proceeding to advocate the first clause, when the arrival of Gen. Canby was announced, whereupon he subsided with an air of a man intensely disgusted and disappointed.

Gen. Canby appeared, was invited to the President's seat and was introduced. Mr. Cowles in introducing him, said:

General—In behalf of this Convention of the people of North Carolina, I extend you a cordial invitation. (We thought that Mr. Cowles' duty was to welcome Gen. Canby—the invitation had already been extended by a committee of the Convention.) Around you are assembled the sons of North Carolina—(among them, Abbott, from New Hampshire; Welker, from Pennsylvania; Heaton, from Ohio; Ashley, from Buzzard's Bay, Mass.; French, from Washington City; and Harris and Cuffee Mayo, from Ethiopia)—many of the bone and sinew of the land—men, too, from the mountains to the seaboard. I again, General, tender you the thanks of this Convention for this visit. [When had Mr. Cowles tendered them before?] The task which has been assigned us, though not fully completed, has, I am pleased (grim smile comes in here) to say been carried on with success thus far. [Under Mr. Cowles' admirable management how could it be otherwise?] Again, I tender you the thanks of this Convention, [How many times more, Mr. Cowles?]

Gen. Canby replied: It will not be proper for me say more at this time, further than to return my thanks for your cordial invitation. I am glad to see so many of North Carolina's sons assembled, engaged in so noble a work. [This is what poor Artemus Ward would call "quiet sourcasm."]

The President here announced a recess of 15 minutes, during which time the members of the Convention were severally introduced to Gen. Canby.

After the recess, Mr. Tourgee resuming, said: The present issue placed him in a very embarrassing condition. He was the youngest man in the body belonging to the legal profession, and was now advocating a radical change. The proposition before the house was to abolish the distinction between law and equity, and also the abolishment of the forms of suits and actions. He proceeded to give the distinctions, and said the law was a wide thing. It reached over everything, from the infant in the cradle to the "oldest inhabitant." Now the difference between law and equity was very slight—equity being a part of the law. Equity in England was simply a branch of the common law. Some of the citizens of the State find their rights in Courts of Law—others in Courts of Equity. The difference could not, therefore, be very great.

Mr. Tourgee spoke at great length, saying that the process in law and equality was the same. The barrier to the change came from the cry of "innovation, innovation, great is Diana of the Ephesians," kept up by legal gentlemen all over the land. In seventeen States of the Union, civilization and common sense had overridden the prejudices and bigotry of by-gone years; the rights and wrongs of citizens were enforced in the same courts and by the same process. It was a dangerous thing to have two parallel lines in such matters when one would suit the purpose. He supposed the case of a man who should bring suit in a court of law for $14,000, but was told to go into a court of equity for redress. He applied to a court of equity and is told that there are suits of two years' standing preceding his.—When a decision is reached the costs swallow the sum involved. He concluded by saying that there were men here who did not want the coming constitution in any form. They came here to oppose it, and did not want the distinctions between law and equity abolished. There was a vein of slavery and a tacitly admitted aristocracy in North Carolina that must be expurged.

Mr. Rodman said that he had listened to the gentleman from Guilford with much attention, and could not see why he should speak against his profession and denounce its members as worshipers of the Ephesian Diana. He claimed to be a member of the profession, and had not an insatiate greed for money, as was insinuated against all the members of the bar. He was opposed to putting anything in the Constitution that was odious and repulsive to the people. He wished to produce a good and wise Constitution that the people would ratify, as it was the only and the shortest way to get back into the Union. He knew that lawyers had been the subjects of jest because of exorbitant fees, but he had yet to see one client who complained. The complainants were men, who had never had dealings with them. The gentleman had spoken of men being afraid of innovations. He was not afraid of them when they come properly and in a proper place. He was opposed, however, to making innovations here, as it was not proper to do so. He closed by saying that he would oppose the resolution.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, said against this wholesale butchery of our institutions, I wish to enter my protest. The gentleman from Guilford had referred to the system in New York.

We did not come here to discuss New York institutions. Members had declared that unless this thing and that were put in the Constitution, the people would not ratify it. He knew the people as well as the delegate from Guilford, and believed that they would accept it.

Mr. Abbott rose to move an indefinite postponement of the whole subject. He so moved because he did not think they ought to deal with the matter in the Constitution. He would not say that he was decidedly opposed to a change in the system. He was not in favor of laying too bold hands on old customs—favored some good changes, and was not a afraid of innovations, but thought it best to leave the matter as it is, at present, untrammeled. Urged that the proper business of the Convention be got through with as soon as possible. He, therefore, moved to postpone.

Mr. Tourgee said the fallacy of Mr. Abbott's remarks was in the assertion that the subject could be left to the Legislature.

Mr. Abbott insisted that it could be done, but at the request of the Chairman of the Committee withdrew his motion to postpone.

Mr. Welker favored the change. The people demanded the abolishment of so many unnecessary courts.

Hood, nigger, did not think this a proper time to take the matter up He could not discuss the legal question involved. [Bless us! what a display of legal acumen the world lost by this heroic self-abnegation.]

Galloway, (nigger,) moved the reference of the whole matter to the Committee. He read the Committee a lecture and told them how to act, for which they were doubtless his very obedient servants. He, however, yielded his motion in favor of Mr. King, of Lenoir, opposed the change, and called for the previous question. The question being put, the first proposition, abolishing all distinction between the courts of law and equity in all future cases, was carried. Yeas 50, nays 38.

Ayes—Mr. President, Ashley, Barnes, Blume, Bryan, Carey, Chillson, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Duckworth, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, Garland, George, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Wayne, Gully, Gunter, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, Highsmith, Hobbs, Hoffler, Ing, Kinney, Mann, May, Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Newsom, Parks, Peterson, Ragland, Ray, Renfrow, Robbins, Smith, Stilwell, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Trogden, Watts, Welker, Williamson.

Noes—Messrs. Abbott, Aydlott, Benbow, Bradley, Candler, Cherry, Ellis, Eppes, Etheridge, Forkner, French of Chowan, Graham, of Orange, Hare, Harris, of Franklin, Hodnett, Hollowell, Jones, of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, King of Lenoir, Legg. Lennon, Logan, Long, Marler, Merritt, McDonald, of Moore, Nance, Nicholson, Patrick, Pierson, Pool, Read, Rhodes, Rodman, Rose, Williams, of Sampson.

Mr. Sweet, very sweetly asked leave of absence for Messrs. McDonald, of Chatham, and King, of Lenoir. Granted.

Galloway, (nigger,) moved to take a recess until 7½ P. M. Lost.

Harris, (nigger,) called up his resolution limiting speeches to 15 minutes. The resolution having been read,

The President declared it to be an amendment, requiring a majority of the votes of the Convention to pass it. The vote being taken, resulted: Ayes 59, nays 9. The resolution was lost.

After much filibustering, Harris gave notice that he would call it up to-morrow.

The Convention then adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

Dr. Nelaton, the great Paris surgeon, recently performed a difficult and dangerous operation upon Count de Goltz, the Prussian Minister to France. As the result was doubtful, the Count went to Berlin to settle up his affairs, and returned to submit to the operation. It seems that M. Goltz perceived one morning a swelling at the end of his tongue; he remembered that his father died of a disease which had commenced with a similar swelling. He sent for Nelaton, who announced that an operation was necessary. The Count was under the knife for the long period of ten minutes. He was a strong man, and three people were required to hold him.

In the Journal des Debats is a satistical statement showing the aggregate of their force in time of peace. It shows that seven and a half million of men are under arms, the entire expense of which is twenty million francs a day or upwards of seven thousand million a year. When the value of this unproductive force is taken in consideration, some idea may be formed of the loss sustained by the material interests of the country.

The Memphis Avalanche announces that its editorial rooms will be temporarily removed to the county jail. The editor takes his revenge by styling Judge Hunter, who sentenced him for contempt, "a swindling Aagabond," and announcing that he intends, "with our editorial pincers, to make the putrid flesh that covers the rotton bones of our persecutor quiver like a worm in hot ashes."

Th Senate Judiciary Committee, at its session on Saturday, considered the bill of Senator Edmunds regulating impeachment. No definite conclusion was arrived at. It is said that three members are in favor of the proposition to suspend from office while on trial any official against whom articles of impeachment have been presented.

General Longstreet received much attention during his visit here, both from the U. S. army officers and the politicians.—Wash. Letter.

If we are not hugely mistaken, General Longstreet "received much attention from U. S. officers" during the late revolution—very much more attention than courtesy or true gallantry demanded.

Rev. J. L. M. Curry preached at Eufaula, Ala., on a certain Sunday in December last. His audience, "forgetting the day and the occasion, during one of his sublime and beautiful flights he was interrupted by an involuntary and irrepressible round of applause!"—Religious Herald—Eufaula Letter.

Forney has a special telegram saying the Alabama Constitution was probably defeated, though it is said that General Meade will likely order a special vote on the same question to be held in northern Alabama, where the Radicals were frightened away from the polls by rebel threats!

The House Committee on Territories will shortly report a bill cutting off the western part of Dakota, and organizing it as a new Territory, to be called Wyoming.

The Pennsylvania Legislature is discussing an amendment striking the word "white" from the constitution. The Judiciary Committee reported against it.

The Suffolk Sun says:—"Masonry seems to be exciting considerable interest in this section. Both the Lodges in this place are prospering."

John Mitchell on Grant.

Referring to the recent disreputable and disgraceful conduct of General Grant in his "surrender" to Stanton and the Radicals, John Mitchell, in his Irish Citizen, thus discourses of the great smoker:

"The truth appears to be that the General forgets why he did not keep his appointment, and why he did not keep his promise; he forgets that there was any promise or any appointment. So he is wisely 'reticent.'

"In fact this Gen. Grant, whether drunk or sober, is unhappily a blockhead. Is not he the man who wrote to the President that the vote of a majority of Congress is "the supreme law of the land?" His "reticence" is the reticence of a man who has not an idea, nor half an idea, and certainly in that peculiar state of circumstances, it is best to hold one's tongue. It was in the field just as it is in the Cabinet—Gen. Grant never had an idea. He showed himself capable, indeed, of admitting into his head the general impression, that—given five men to one, he could afford to throw away four for one, and come out the winner, and he did. This was a simple sum in subtraction; and General Grant victoriously solved it. But this achievement stopped there. We never met the Confederate officer who attributed to Gen. Grant the first rudimentary notion of strategy, and never hope to meet any gentleman in civil life who will allow that Gen. Grant has the slightest idea of law or of government. So he had better be "reticent."

Nineteenth day of the Convention, and twenty-nine delegates present. A resolution was adopted, asking Congress to repeal the cotton tax.

The Sergeant-at-Arms was directed to notify the members of the minority that the Convention was in regular session, and that their presence was required. Three members of the minority took their seats.

It is understood that General Meade leaves the subject of eligibility to the Convention.

A resolution was adopted calling an investigation of the conduct of nigger delegates, charged with making incendiary speeches at a mass meeting on the 8th inst., in which they encouraged riotous proceedings against three delegates who had gone with the absent majority, proposing to tar and feather, hang or burn them.

The Convention went into secret session to consider the matter. Judge Walker and General Randal were called as witnesses to the proceedings. Some of the minority say they intend another meeting on Saturday next, to resume according to their adjournment, but it is not likely that they will do it.

ATLANTA, Feb. 12.

Aaron Alpeoria Bradley, nigger, [Just such a nigger, we imagine, as Jeems Harris, of Wake,] was by a unanimous vote, expelled to-day for a gross insult offered the Convention.

The section of the franchise committee report, which proposed to disfranchise until January 1st, 1869, all who cannot register under the Sheman bill, was defeated by the adoption of Miller's substitute. This disfranchises only those convicted of treason, embezzlement of public finds, malfeasanse in office, crime punishable by law with imprisonment in the penitentiary, bribery, idiots and insane persons. Yeas 114, noes 16,—four-fifths of the niggers voting in the affirmative.

Radicalism Blossoming?

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.

The new Arkansas Constitution enfranchises women and negroes and makes them competent as jurors; and disfranchises those disfranchised by the Reconstruction Acts and those voting against the Constitution.

WHAT ALABAMA MAY EXPECT.—Greely says: "Should the Constitution be thus deprived of a majority, we trust that Congress will take the manifest will for the deed, and restore Alabama to her forfeitured place in the Union, admitting her members to seats and recognizing her as reorganized under her reformed Constitution."

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

CITY AND STATE.

Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard.

That our readers may understand the feeling of affectionate regard and veneration entertained towards this able, eloquent and truly christian divine by the people of his church, we insert from the Petersburg Index, the following preamble and resolutions, unanimously adopted at the monthly meeting of the First Baptist Church of that city, held on Sunday, Feb. 9th inst.:

WHEREAS, Since the last regular meeting of this church, our late beloved Pastor, the Rev. Thomas H. Prichard, has resigned its pastoral charge, and his resignation has been accepted, a sense of christian affection and duty impels us to the adoption of the following resolutions, expressive of our feelings and sense, of his worth as a minister and a man.

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the sundering of a connection which has been so full of love, so free from all bitterness, and productive, we trust, of much good.

Resolved, That we express with pleasure our ever increasing confidence in, and regard for, our late Pastor as a christian minister, faithfully and ably discharging the duties of the pulpit, administering with fidelity the consolations of the Gospel to the poor, the penitent and the sick, and always zealously engaging in every work of love in his charge.

esolved, That in the name of the entire membership of our church, we tender to Brother Pritchard, his wife and family, our heartfelt wishes for their future happiness and welfare, and we pray that the richest blessings of Providence may ever rest upon them and rejoice that their future home is cast among those who have already learned to love them.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be published in the Religious Herald, Biblical Recorder and the daily papers of this city, and that a copy be transmitted to Brother T. H. Pritchard.

GEO. W. HALL, Ch. Clerk.

Contestants.

A drove of mules, or, in Konvenshun parlance, a delegation of ass-inine animals, arrived in this city yesterday and took lodgings at the livery stables next to the Planter's Hotel.

The meaning of their presence in the city at this particular time, this deponent saith not, but we have heard it suggested by the knowing ones, that they are here to contest the seats of Conservative delegates in the Konvenshun.

We have not seen any member of the drove—we beg pardon!—delegation, but it is rumored that Lorenzo D. Hall, of Sampson,—an old acquaintance of ours—is along, and if the report be true, we shall no longer entertain any doubts as to the purpose of their visit, for "Rans" (another name for L. D. Hall,) officially advised the Menagerie some time ago that he was the rightful owner of the seat now held by Mr. Williams, a very worthy and intelligent white man from Sampson.

Hall's comrades doubtless come with similar motives, consequently the reign of our Conservative friends at the Capitol will be brief, for we are satisfied that a decision affecting the rights of white men and mules respectively, asses being judges, will be altogether in favor of the latter.

Spelt with a K.

We have been asked repeatedly why we spell Manager Kowles' name with a K, knowing, as we do, that it is usually spelt with a C. Well, we have more than one good reason for it. We adopted this orthography in order to distinguish the amiable Head Centre from a gallant Conservative, living in the same section of the State, and bearing the same surname. Now, Manager Kowles had rather be hung for high treason than be suspected of the faintest tinge of Conservatism. Per contra, our worthy friend, Andrew J. Cowles, of Yadkin, would suffer a similar fate—would sooner welcome ——"the shot—the blade—the bowl,

Than crucifixion of the soul,"

by being suspected of scallywag Radicalism, or any other sort of niggerism whatever.

We also spell the great Showman's name with a K, because, being one of the notable curiosities of this age and country—his name should be curiously spelt; and we cannot spell it more curiously than by beginning it with a capital K.

K is the Kangaroo, squatting in the chair;
Copper-head Reporter: "What yer doin dare?"

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were before his honor, W. D. HAYWOOD, on yesterday:

Francis Ferrall, charged with making a personal exposure on Market Square. Fined $5.

Jack Read, negro, charged with breaking open the smoke house of J. F. Hutchins and stealing therefrom 250 pounds of bacon. Returned to county court.

Levi Dargan, negro, charged with entering the house of J. King and stealing flour, lard, a shot gun and other articles. Returned to county court.

Private Andrew Yenson, Co. B, 8th U. S. Inf'y, arrested at A. W. Frapp's, at 11 o'clock at night' for intoxication and disorderly conduct. Lodged in the guard-house, and turned over to the military authorities.

Caswell Hurst. Lodged in the guard-house for being intoxicated and disorderly. Discharged according to law.

"The Most Unkindest Cut of All."

In the course of the debate on the judicial system on Tuesday, Mr. Pool, of Pasquotank, who opposed the proposition to submit the election of judges to the people, remarked as an argument against the change, that he ventured the prediction if the election were left to the people that even the delegate from Chatham (Ginger Cake McDonald) would defeat the best lawyer in the State for a judgeship.

Coming from a member of his own party, this was severe on Johnny, very severe.

Adjournment.

The Standard of yesterday editorially gave the opinion that the Congoes would complete their labors by the 1st of March, at furthest, and adjourn. We are somewhat surprised at the statement, since we had supposed the thing a perpetuity. We remember, that early in the session, Mr. Manager Cowles, ruled a motion to adjourn out of order, and had really supposed that he would so rule forever—or at least until the $8 per day was no longer come-at-ible by "ye animiles."

Aint they Thick.

While General Canby was manipulating the paws and claws of the Menagerie congos and kangaroos at the capitol, yesterday, the niggers piled up thick and heavy in the galleries, which caused an old gentleman from the country to exclaim "aint they thick?" What thick, asked we. "Aint niggers thick," said old gent, pointing, at the same time, to a spot in the upper tier where negroes were most congregated. Our eyes followed the direction of his fingers, and—Gracious! weren't they thick!

Verily they looked like cloud-cap't stacks of black cats!

A Point of Order.

The Tourgee, while urging his resolution favoring the abolition of the Courts of Equity, yesterday, became very dry—the Tourgee is generally very dry—and began to take on water, when our reporter, behind a post in the lobby, suggested, sotto voce, a point of order, which was; is it in order for a wind-mill to go by water?

Manager Kowles failed to see the "pint," so the "pint" of order went under the table—and so did our reporter.

A Free Ticket.

One and all are invited to visit
Ye wonderful Animal Show;
Great Head Centre Kowles of, (What is it?)
Would have all creation to go;—
He's extremely perlite, as you know,—
(At least our Reporter says so;)
Then hasten to-day,
Without further delay,
To see the Great Animal Show!

Ill Star-red.

A huge kerosene oil lamp used in the composing room of the Wilmington Star, suddenly burst the other evening, scattering the oil promiscuously. We are glad to know that no damage resulted.

The Fourteenth Day of February.

To-morrow is Valentine's day. Our little jaybird, who sometimes forgets us, will please stick a pin here.

The Council of State, which met in this city on Tuesday, to nominate a successor to the Hon. D. G. Fowle, agreed to recommend Col. Clinton A. Cilley for the position. Col. Cilley was during the war an officer in the U. S. Army, and for sometimes afterwards was connected with the Freedman's Bureau in this State. Leaving the service he decided to make North Carolina his home, and since taking up his residence, he has proved to be a most valuable acquisition. He did not seek the position, preferring that some native citizen should be appointed. It is said that he will accept.

Some wretch attempted to throw the passenger train on the C. & S. C. Railroad from the track on Monday morning. He drove a large log into the ground against one of the cross ties, leaving about two feet above ground, so that the engine and cars might strike it and be precipitated from the track. Fortunately the velocity of the train was sufficiently great to break the log. It was thus saved from destruction.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:
Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.
I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in .. any localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address G. W. DEEMS,
